

Research Analyst (Volunteer)

Who We Are

Human Rights Research Center (HRRC) is an established 501(c)(3) nonprofit that brings a multidisciplinary approach to human rights and seeks to bridge the gap between academic research and the wider public. We educate through facts, advocate using our research findings, and take action to implement change.

Who You Are

You are a dedicated human rights advocate with exceptional research, writing, and analytical skills. You're comfortable juggling multiple projects in dynamic, start-up environments and thrive in both independent and collaborative settings. You value ethics, equity, and trauma-informed approaches and have a keen eye for detail and storytelling.

What You'll Do

- Research and monitor human rights issues globally, analyzing information from diverse sources
- Draft compelling written content including research reports, briefing papers, op-eds, and press materials
- Create data visualizations and infographics to communicate findings in accessible formats
- Support research project protocols and assist with literature reviews and synthesis
- Apply qualitative, quantitative, mixed methods, or open-source research techniques
- Contribute feedback and collaborate with team members to shape final deliverables
- Exceptional contributors may lead analysis on specific issues or assist in editorial strategy

Qualifications

- Demonstrated interest in international human rights and advocacy
- Strong research and writing skills with attention to detail and clarity
- Experience with at least one research methodology (qualitative, quantitative, open-source, etc.)
- Ability to communicate complex ideas to varied audiences
- Comfort working remotely and navigating flexible deadlines
- Fluency in languages other than English is a plus but not required
- Proficiency in visualization tools (e.g., Canva, Tableau, etc.) or presentation design is beneficial

Compensation and Commitment

This is a volunteer, virtual opportunity with an expectation of at least one research project every 4-6 weeks. A minimum six-month time commitment is required to maintain continuity and project impact.

Human Rights Research Center (HRRC)
Website: www.humanrightsresearch.org
501(c)3 IRS EIN: 87-1306523
2000 Duke Street, Suite 300, Alexandria, VA 22314, U.S.A.

Benefits of Volunteering with Us

- Contribute to public education and policy advocacy efforts
- Strengthen your portfolio with published materials and data-driven deliverables
- Collaborate with a multidisciplinary team of changemakers
- Shape narratives that inspire social justice and systemic reform
- Receive professional references, LinkedIn recommendations, and public recognition for your contributions

How to Apply

Please complete the application form here: <https://forms.gle/F6agdzywoPogFWHY6>.

Human Rights Research Center (HRRC) is committed to equal opportunity and promotes equity and transparency as core values. HRRC practices inclusiveness in decision making through the use of consultation with employees throughout the organization. HRRC does not discriminate against any person on the basis of actual or perceived race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, citizenship status, age, ability, gender, marital status, veteran status, sexual orientation, genetic information, arrest record or any other characteristic protected by applicable federal, state or local laws. Applicants committed to equity from all backgrounds, experiences, abilities, and identities are encouraged to apply.